NFCH is an autonomous organization under the Ministry of Home Affairs working for physical and psychological rehabilitation of the children of communal, caste, ethnic or terrorist violence.

The farmers from especially from Marathwada and Vidarbha region of Maharashtra are facing devastating conditions for many years due to drought. NAAM is founded in September 2015 by two celebrities from the world of cinema, Nana Patekar and Makarand Anaspure. It helps the families of farmers who committed suicide, in the draught prone area of Maharashtra.

The Practice:

College receives a letter and brochure from NFCH regarding fund collections. Wide publicity is given. Students prepare the boxes for collections of funds with the pamphlets on box. They appeal to the fellow students in various classes to contribute. The collected amount is send to the foundation through DD or deposit to their account.

Students read about NAAM foundation in news papers and willingly decided to contribute to this foundation. They approached college authority for permission to collect funds from students. College authority granted the permission immediately. Accordingly students collected the fund and send to the foundation through Principal.

Evidence of Success:

The students of the college voluntarily contributed to both of them and a good amount is given for a noble cause. The sentiments of the students are more important than money.
